

SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL

Who We Are:

Upper Deck Travel-Ball Corporation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation that consists of youths ranging between the ages of 9-18 years old that have a desire to play baseball and softball at a higher competitive level. The mission of Upper Deck Travel-Ball Corporation is to provide healthy activities to assist in giving youth an alternative to drugs and other negative behaviors that are detrimental. The Upper Deck Travel-Ball Corporation is dedicated to developing highly skilled youth baseball and softball members on and off the field: as well as, educating and modeling our members to being productive in society. Upper Deck Travel-Ball Corporation and Board of Directors pride ourselves on integrity, character, developing and maintaining friendships through teamwork, problem-solving, camaraderie and leadership by stressing and enforcing a zero tolerance for anti-bullying policy organizational wide. Additionally, Upper Deck Travel-Ball Corporation strives to place players into highly competitive tournaments to help implement their skills taught into live play.

Our Values:

For our players to learn; positive leadership, responsibility, accountability, time management, physical health, positive self-worth and good sportsmanship, through participating in game play through baseball and softball competition.

The goal of sponsorship is to raise funds to purchase equipment, provide new training, and/or scholarship players who are unable to afford monthly dues, including but not limited to assist in lowering the cost of uniforms as well as tournament expenses. With a demographic consisting mainly of successful, working families from various parts of the county, the organization will provide an exciting opportunity for sponsors and supporters to target a growing section of the market and advertise their goods and services
